Learning Experience
Week 4 – The United Kingdom

Locational Knowledge Passport Challenge
Naming cities in the UK The Golden Hind set sail from Plymouth on her voyage around the world. It was a really important sea port during this time. It is now recorded as the 15th largest city in the UK. How many other cities in the UK can you name? Using the Cities in the United Kingdom Map found in your new Home Learning packs, try to name all the cities. This map can also be found on Google Classroom – Classwork/Assignments – Home Learning Pack. Some of you have sent me this map already so don't do this Learning Activity again, if you have already completed it.	Seas and Rivers Try to do some research about the seas and oceans surrounding The United Kingdom. Also, find the names of some of The UK's major rivers. Perhaps you could use one of the maps of the UK on Google Classroom and label it with the names of the seas and oceans. You could also draw on the location of the major rivers and name them. If you prefer, you might like to put together a Power-point presentation with your findings. There is also an interactive labelling activity about The UK's seas and rivers at the link below. https://www.twinkl.co.uk/go/resource/ig2-g-07-go-teach-rivers-label-uk-seas-and-rivers-interactive-activity	Super hero teddy design ideas All over the UK people have been raising money for different causes, especially the NHS whose workers are our heroes right now. John Lewis have launched a competition for children to design a Superhero Teddy bear. Go to the link below and find out what the competition is all about. https://www.johnlewis.com/content/your-partners-through-it-all/feel-good-friday The winning teddy will be sold in John Lewis and Waitrose shops later this year, with 100% of the profits going to the NHS. Time to get designing, I think.	Bank Holiday in the UK Friday 8th May At 11am on Friday 8 May, BBC One will lead a poignant two-minute silence to mark the 75th anniversary of the end of the Second World War. This national moment of remembrance will pay tribute to heroes of the past and present. Try to be part of this moment and have a quiet time to think about all those people who helped us in the past and all those people who are helping us now. At 2.45pm BBC One will broadcast Sir Winston Churchill's famous victory speech in which he addressed the nation to announce the end of the war in Europe, which he made from 10 Downing Street on 8 May 1945. Try to tune into if you can and listen to this famous speech.	Design some bunting Try to make some bunting to celebrate the heroes of the UK. It doesn't have to include the Union Jack design as seen below. Make up your own design and send me some photos of how it turns out.
